Thanking the Lord for Mark & Rachael ORGAN ...

Mark and Rachael Organ's exposure to NICE began in 2006 when they began attending Nehalem Valley Bible Church in Vernonia, Oregon. The Organs met Roy and Elvia Sprague, and interacted with them each time they visited the church, even hosting them in their home. When pastor and NICE Board member, Gary Taylor retired, Mark was called as pastor at Nehalem Valley Bible Church, and NICE has played a part in preparing Mark for the ministry. Mark commented, "Perhaps the biggest contribution that NICE has made in my life was the involvement of Roy, Bob Rodgers and several others in my ordination board panel in 2019. Roy especially was particularly kind during this process and guided me through it." NICE Executive Director, Bob Rodgers had a conversation with Mark regarding joining the NICE Family, and in 2020, Mark and Rachael completed the interview process and were accepted with the Mission. Mark added, "This has been such a wonderful blessing - especially considering Bob's work with the young pastors group and Katherine's work with the pastor's wives! They have done much to encourage both Rachael and myself." NICE is thankful to be partnering together in ministry with the Organs!
