Cross and Butler families: Pray for comfort for the friends and families of two former NICE missionaries, Joy Cross and Fay Butler, who have been called into the Lord's presence.

Thanking the Lord for Matt & Annette DANIELLS ...

Matt and Annette Daniells joined the NICE Family in 2015, having become acquainted with the Mission through their home church, Edgewood Bible Church, WA, where Matt served on staff at the time; and through the Pacific Northwest Regional meetings. Shortly after joining the Mission, they were called to serve as Associate Pastor at Evergreen Bible Church in Vancouver, WA. Last year, Keyport Bible Church, WA extended a call to Matt to minister as Senior Pastor, bringing the family of eight back to the Puget Sound area. Matt commented, "Lots of wonderful ministry is taking place! I've been especially encouraged by our Sermon Discussion Groups that happen shortly after the Worship Service, with about 65% participation. I'm also excited by the Outreach into the community of Keyport that we did recently, handing out flyers letting people know that we'd like to serve them by helping with yard projects AND inviting them to our Easter Events." Regarding their involvement with the Mission as NICE Associate, he added, "I've been very encouraged and blessed by my relationship with Bob Rodgers. I've especially been thankful for the Young Pastors Forum that Bob started and leads. Annette and I are so glad to be a part of the fellowship, encouragement, and training that NICE provides." We're privileged to partner together with the Daniells in furthering the gospel! Please uphold Matt, Annette and their family in prayer!
