Thanking God for Josh & Rebecca Shetler!

The newest members of the NICE Family are Josh and Rebecca Shetler, who are serving at Moscow Bible Church, Idaho. Josh and Rebecca met at Frontier School of the Bible in LaGrange, Wyoming, and Josh commented, "Only God would bring together a country boy from a small logging community in Oregon and a quiet girl from sunny Southern Utah and place them in Moscow, Idaho. I guess it's somewhere in the middle!" Moscow Bible was begun through the ministry of NICE Missionaries, Matt & Judy Hallson. Josh joined them as a pastoral intern in 2010. In 2013, the church called the Shetlers as full time pastor as the Hallsons moved on to another church plant ministry. Matt reflected, "Josh was obviously gifted in teaching the Bible, rightly dividing the Word of Truth. I was deeply impressed that he communicated well with all the saints regardless of age or background. Just when I thought 'it doesn't get any better than this' along came Rebecca Kirkland, also a Frontier alumni, and wedding bells! Not only are they doing an exemplary job of raising their 4 children, but Rebecca too excels in connecting well with all ages."

Bob Rodgers, Director of NICE, recalls a conversation with Josh where he was mentioning the benefits and blessings they get from the Mission and its staff. Josh stated that they felt it was time to get involved in the ministry of NICE on a permanent status! In fact, one of the benefits and blessings was as a child when Josh attended Birkenfeld Community Church, Oregon. Birkenfeld is the small logging community Josh referred to. The church was begun by Josh's Grandfather, Eldon Shetler, but in later years has been served by a number of NICE missionaries. So the Shetlers began application with NICE and were accepted in April 2018. It is truly a blessing to have this young family join us in ministry!
