Thanking the Lord for Jim CORNELL ...

Jim and Kathy Cornell were accepted to serve with NICE in October of 1983. Their first place of ministry was Silver Sage Bible Church in Fallon, Nevada. They went on from there to serve three churches in California and Idaho. In 2009, they moved back to Idaho and the Cornell's continued to serve in churches in a variety of ways, as needs presented. This included preaching, teaching, nursery coordinator, AWANA leaders, music, and more! In March 2021, Kathy was called home to be with the Lord after a nearly two-year battle with cancer. Jim is currently involved in multiple ministries in his home church in Meridian, ID: preaching as needed, teaching an adult Sunday School class and weekly Bible study, leading a GriefShare ministry, and helping with worship. For the past 7 years, Jim also preaches monthly at a nearby church. Jim noted, "During my time with NICE I have been honored to go to Russia four times to teach God's Word to the leadership of the churches in the region where I was." Citing Psalm 90:10, he joked, "On Easter of this year I became officially and biblically old!" Jim went on, "I thank God for the long relationship with NICE as missionaries and associates. These brothers and sisters of NICE have been such an encouragement and blessing to Kathy and me. I praise the Lord for leading us to this ministry family!" We thank God for faithful partners in ministry, such as Jim and Kathy! Looking for areas of need, and stepping in to be available characterizes Jim Cornell and all our NICE missionaries!
