Thanking the Lord for Jesús & Maria CORDOVA ...

In 1994, God moved in the hearts of Jesús and Maria Cordova to respond to the need for Hispanic pastors in the Northwest. Since then, the Cordovas have planted Spanish speaking churches in Yakima, Harrah, Forks and Bellingham. They have also helped churches in Sequim, WA and Salem, OR in reaching the Hispanic in those communities. Jesús and Maria have ministered at Iglesia Bautista Cristo Vive in Salem, OR for 11 years, witnessing both physical and spiritual growth. The church was gifted a new building more adequate for their needs and ministry, and the church is praising God for His amazing provision! Cristo Vive has a goal of not only reaching the Hispanic of their community, but are praying about the possibility of planting a church in nearby areas. All who know the Cordovas remark on their passion for reaching the lost; on Jesús' ability to preach the Word with authority; and how they have both met the challenge of Maria's cancer battle with grace and confidence in the Lord. She is currently in remission.

Jesús also serves on the NICE Director's Ministry Team as the Hispanic Field Director. God has uniquely equipped this wonderful couple for ministry, and we in NICE have benefitted greatly from serving together with them!
