Thanking the Lord for Mark & Rachael ORGAN!

Mark and Rachael Organ's exposure to NICE began in 2006 when they began attending Nehalem Valley Bible Church in Vernonia, Oregon, and met Roy and Elvia Sprague. When pastor and NICE Board member, Gary Taylor retired, Mark was called as pastor at Nehalem Valley Bible Church, and NICE has played a part in preparing Mark for the ministry. Mark commented, "Perhaps the biggest contribution that NICE has made in my life was the involvement of Roy, Bob Rodgers and several others in my ordination board panel in 2019. Roy especially was particularly kind during this process and guided me through it." Mark and Rachael completed the interview process and were accepted with NICE in 2020. Mark added, "This has been a wonderful blessing - especially considering Bob's work with the young pastors group and Katherine's work with the pastor's wives! They have done much to encourage both Rachael and myself." A regular Community Outreach day and door-to-door evangelism have helped bring rapid growth in the youth ministry as well as in regular attenders at the worship service. Mark continued, "Rachael and I are being stretched in new ways as we minister to these different people. As always, we rely heavily on NICE for council and encouragement, especially as we outgrow our previous ministry experience and stretch into uncharted waters." NICE is thankful to be partnering together in ministry with the Organs!
