Urgent Prayer Requests

Bob & Katherine Rodgers: Pray for journey's mercies as they return home from the IFCA Convention in Missouri. Due to last minute airline flight cancellations, they unexpectedly had to drive to and from the Convention.

Thanking God for Rob & Ruth Morris!

As a young Bible School Senior, Rob Morris was shocked to hear from visiting speaker, Roy Sprague, that the area he came from was more unreached than many foreign mission fields. That started him on the path of applying with NICE. In 1979, Rob and Ruth were accepted with NICE, and were mentored under Jonathan and Maurine Teeter in Burney, CA. Their first senior pastorate was in a small church out in the Montana wheat fields. In 1985, Rob and Ruth moved to Seeley Lake, MT, where Rob worked in the sawmill while pastoring Community Bible Church. Change came in 1989, when health concerns required Rob to quit working at the mill. God directed them to Hobart Community Church in Washington, where they have been since...almost 30 years! It has been a ministry with many ups and downs until the Lord brought fellow NICE family, Bob and Judi Allen as partnering missionaries to help out. Rob said, "I know I would have given up and moved on if not for the encouragement and faithfulness of Bob and Judi, and the encouragement of the NICE leadership through the years. I've been privileged to be mentored, counseled, and encouraged by such men of God as Roy Sprague, Noel Olsen, Bill Cross, Richard Schwab, Earl Brubaker, John Edgell, Bob Rodgers, and many of the men of the Northwest Regional. What a privilege to serve our Great Lord together with these men! I firmly believe that the call of God to plant and build Bible believing churches to the glory of God is the highest calling we can ever hope to serve!"
