Thanking God for Mark & Melanie Edwards!

After 11 years in Ecuador as missionaries, and 8 years in the pastorate in Maine, Mark and Melanie Edwards moved to Washington and joined NICE in 2012. Through a variety of twists and turns, God brought them to Wishkah Valley Community Church in Aberdeen, Washington in the fall of 2015. Their ministry includes all the typical things that a pastor and his wife does. What makes a difference for the Edwards is the people they minister to and with. The Wishkah Valley Community Church is blessed with a wonderful group of Elders that help give spiritual and physical oversight for the church. Many others in the church are willing to help in the various tasks of body life. In recent years, Mark has battled Myasthenia Gravis, which effects his swallowing and speech. They feel blessed to serve in a church that has supported them through the ups and downs of this disease, filling in as needed. Other NICE Personnel have helped fill in as well. Mark and Melanie commented, "What a blessing to be part of an organization of godly men and women that encourage and pray for one another. And what a blessing to serve in such a loving, supportive church!"
