✠ Thanking the Lord for Jesús and Maria Cordova ...

In 1994, God moved in the hearts of Jesús and Maria Cordova to respond to the need for Hispanic pastors in the Northwest. Since then, the Cordovas have planted Spanish speaking churches in Yakima, Harrah, Forks and Bellingham. They have also helped churches in Sequim, WA and Salem, OR in reaching the Hispanic in those communities. Jesús periodically conducts an Hispanic School of Ministry, training men for Spanish-speaking ministry. Jesús and Maria have ministered at Iglesia Bautista Cristo Vive in Salem, OR for 14 years, witnessing both physical and spiritual growth. The church was gifted a building more adequate for their needs and ministry, bringing much rejoicing and praise! Cristo Vive has a goal of not only reaching the Hispanic of their community, but also the possibility of planting a church in nearby areas. Jesús has gone on several summer mission trips to the Dominican Republic. All who know the Cordovas remark on their passion for reaching the lost; on Jesús' ability to preach the Word with authority; and how they have both met the challenge of Maria's cancer battle with grace and confidence in the Lord. She is currently in remission. God has uniquely equipped this wonderful couple for ministry, and we in NICE, have benefitted greatly from serving together with them!
